Springer's Ice Cream's Christmas in July Benefits Habitat

Springer's Ice Cream in Stone Harbor

Many thanks to the staff and owners at Springer's Home Made Ice Cream in Stone Harbor for their donation of $2150.

Manager Christie Besack organized a "Christmas in July" day at the store and Springer's staff people donated all of their tips to Habitat. The Humphreys, Springer's owners, matched their staff's donations, and many local businesses donated items for the silent auction. Springer's is located between 95th and 94th Sts. on Third Ave. in Stone Harbor.

Ocean View Woman Joins Habitat Board

Margaret Mary Zaborowski

The newest member of Habitat Cape May County's Board of Directors is Margaret Mary (Peggy) Zaborowski.

Peggy is an administrative assistant at Sturdy Savings Bank. She just bought her first house and lives in Ocean View with her two American Eskimo dogs, Chinook and Meeko.

Peggy is an active member of St. Joseph's R.C. Church in Sea Isle City where she is a lector, a cantor, a Eucharistic minister and treasurer of the Marian Guild.

She is completing her B.S. in Business Administration on line and is determined to finish "even if I die trying."

Welcome Peggy! Thanks for including Habitat in your busy schedule.

Lutheran Church In Wildwood Hosts Habitat President

Board president Don Olcese made two trips in two weeks to the Lutheran Church of the Holy Trinity in Wildwood. On August 3rd, Don spoke about Habitat for Humanity International and the Cape May County affiliate at a covered dish dinner. On August 13th he was back at Holy Trinity enjoying an ice cream social and Vacation Bible School reunion and accepting a check for $900 donated by the children at Vacation Bible School.

Congratulations to...

Habitat Cape May's attorney and former Board member Peter Garvey and his wife Laura on the birth of 9lb. 2oz. Drew Michael Garvey on August 8th.

Former Habitat Board president Andrew Shawl and his wife Sarah on their marriage early in August. Andy was president of the Habitat Board for many years, and, among his many accomplishments, he was instrumental in our partnership with the Cape May County Vocational Technical School.
