Annual Dinner 2010

This year's Annual Dinner at the Avalon Country Club October 28th hosted 50 guests and featured friends new and old. Below, three generations of Lopezes—Miriam, our newest homeowner (center), daughter Na Tasha (inset), son Da'Sean, and mother Louisa (far right) celebrate with supporter Maria Kellett; Habitat partner family Karen Thompson and son Nathaniel enjoy dinner; and organizer Jim Sorenson makes the rounds with raffle tickets.

Affiliate president Kathie Steiger honors outgoing board members Joann Ireland and Ralph Cooper; Kathie gets help with the raffle drawing from Da'Sean (above right), who also led the Pledge of Allegiance; good friend Deputy Mayor Nate Doughty (bottom left) commends the affiliate and promises his continued support; Executive Director Shawn Lockyear outlines goals of more houses, increased volunteer participation, and a new ReStore, where donated furniture, appliances, and building supplies will be sold to the public at a fraction of retail. It will be the first such store in southern New Jersey and sure to be a successful fundraiser. →

The Annual Dinner is a time to reconnect and thank friends who have given so much in time and talent, such as Chip French, Chris Pelzer, Jeff Taylor, Will Haryslak, Jeanne Pearce and others. A special thank you to Sturdy Savings Bank, Crest Savings Bank, 1st Bank of Sea Isle City, Ocean City Home Bank, and Cape Bank for sponsoring the gift baskets; and to Betty McGurk of Country Barn Florist who donated the beautiful flowers.

Finishing Touches

Miriam Lopez, our newest partner, gets acquainted with the electric panel and her new kitchen in House #10. She builds sweat equity painting, clearing brush, and many other ways, while sister Lillian watches Da'Sean and cousin Latrell. Executive Director Shawn Lockyear and Construction Supervisor Phil Pattison coordinated a thousand details and nearly 500 volunteer work hours to finish siding, decks, drywall, flooring, installation of appliances and fixtures, plumbing and HVAC, hanging interior doors, etc. Judy Donohue (bottom left) cuts in around wall sockets; Scott Gaffney and Dave Calvert finish the porch roof at right. There have been many wonderful donations from Avalon Carpet & Tile, Weinstein Supply, Dan Lockwood, Shaw Crane, Marsden Electric, Steel City Mechanical, Garden Greenhouse, Smeltzer and Sons, Gutter Guys, Whirlpool, Sherwin-Williams, Mitchell Nichols, Unitarian Universalist Church, Cape May County Special Services School, Keene Plumbing, Gallo Concrete, Forever Pure, and Delta Kappa Gamma Sorority, who as usual will decorate the children's rooms.

Play Golf!

The Annual Golf Tournament in June 2010 succeeded beyond hope, raising ten times the funds anticipated. A beautiful venue at the Stone Harbor Golf Club, a gorgeous day, and 80 cheerful golfers made it an event everyone wants to repeat. Many thanks to all our donors and sponsors, including Sturdy Savings Bank, Pembroke North, Thrivent Financial for Lutherans, Architecture by Haryslak, Allstate, Cape Bank, Creative Financial Group, and Burke Motor Group. Stone Harbor Golf Club was a beautiful course and the service was outstanding. Special thanks to board members Ann Leahy and Chip French who organized the event, and to Shawn Lockyear and volunteers who looked after all the details. It was amazing.
