Summer 2005

Progress on Cochran Street!

Jerry Beasley and his framing crew get the plywood ready to go on the roof.

SeaShore Construction Corp. crew braves a very hot July day to put the roof on our Cochran Street house in Whitesboro.

Habitrak is Coming

Thanks to a laptop computer given to us by Cape Savings Bank, we are now able to use Habitrak, a Habitat International program useful for tracking volunteers, expenses, income, and just about anything else you can think of.

We're proud to be United Way!

Kudos for helping with the house to...

JF Builders of Sea Isle City who once again donated both labor and materials to put in the foundation.

Jerry Beasley Builders. Jerry donated his own time in the framing of our house.

Ken Hamann and his class at Cape May Co. Vo Tech for figuring the material takeoff.

Seashore Construction Corp. for donating the labor to roof the house.

Nate Doughty, mayor of Middle Twp., for help and encouragement.

Jim Alexis, Middle Twp.

Administrator, for help with complex land situations.

Annual Dinner Great Success

A large group of Habitat supporters gathered At Atkinson's Restaurant on April 27th for an enjoyable evening of good food, good people, good information and good fun.

Keynote speaker was Christina P. Clemans, real estate broker-owner, past president of the NJ Assn. Of Realtors, and current chair of their Housing Opportunity Foundation. The invocation was given by Minister Christopher Pelzer of Christ Gospel Church. Nate Doughty, Habitat board member Jack Gibson, and Jeff Van Drew all greeted the group.

Board member Joanne Gray talks housing.

At the dinner, representatives of Sturdy Savings Bank, including Habitat board member Joanne Gray, presented us with a check for almost $16,000, the proceeds of a Sturdy/ 1st Bank of Sea Isle City-sponsored golf tournament. All of our partner families attended the dinner.
