Annual Habitat Dinner Volunteers / Families Highlighted

Habitat for Humanity Cape May County friends and families gathered at the Bellevue Tavern in Cape May Court House on May 10th, 2007, to celebrate another year of successful working to provide housing for those in need.

Guests of honor at the dinner were Rich and Dottie Ward, the newest Habitat homeowner partners who moved into their Habitat house on Cochran St. in Whitesboro only a month before the dinner. Other Habitat families attending were the Thompson's and the Bortle's.

Distinguished guests included Mayor Nathan Doughty of Middle Township, 1st District Assemblyman Jeff Van Drew and Mathew Milam of Vineland, a candidate for the NJ Assembly from the 1st District, as well as many members of the affiliate's Board of Directors and volunteers and friends.

Also present were students and teachers from the Cape May Co. Special Services School who helped in building the Cochran St. house.

New Habitat homeowners Dottie and Rich Ward, seated, were honored guests at the annual dinner.

Board member of the year award went to long time Board member and affiliate public relations spe-

Volunteer of the year was Dave Calvert who faithfully brought a crew from the Cape May Methodist church to assist with building.

A special NJ Assembly citation was given to contractor Steve Stecki who stepped in to direct building operations when a former building supervisor had to leave.

New construction supervisor Phil Pattison and his wife Lisa were given certificates of appreciation for all of the work their entire family has put into Habitat.

The Board plans to begin work on its next house, slated for Indian Trail in Middle Township, this summer.

Habitation Day
 For New CMC
 Habitat Family

Habitat for Humanity Cape May County held a special "Habitation Day" on March 17th, 2007 to mark the completion for their property at 11 Cochran Street in Whitesboro.

The Home was turned over to Rich & Dorothy Ward and their two sons, Steven, age 14 and Kyle, 4. The Ward's have participated in building the home and are very excited about the long awaited day. The finished home was the result of a tremendous amount of community support and recognition was also given to the many partner organizations and volunteers.
